

Youth Court Application for Recertification

The Youth Court Diversion Act provides that the Youth Court Board "provide for a process to recertify each Youth Court every three years."
(78-57-108 4c)

Your recertification date is _____, three years from your original certification date of _____. You recertification should be received no later than January 31, 2003.

To keep the recertification process as simple as possible, the Youth Court Board only requests information where changes have occurred from your original certification application. Where no changes have been made, a simple statement indicating that no changes have occurred from the original certification application is all that is required. The completion of the following reapplication request with the necessary attachments to reflect the changes you note is all that is required. Please refer to your original certification application for detailed explanations of each item numbered below.
